You May Find New Happiness In a 'Family Night at Home

The city council of parents and teachers in our town is after us parents to observe a "family night at home." They've laid down a few rules and urge us all to follow them for one evening and see if we don't have a wonderful time. We're not just to sit around and listen to the radio or indulge in such solitary pursuits as reading. We're to do something together. Play a game the whole family can join in. Or take turns reading aloud. Or sit around a table making vacation plans. Or even to get out the old snapshot album and relive the past a little. It's not a bad idea—not a bad

Highlights of Japanese Peace Treaty-

Illustrated below are principle provisions of the proposed peace treaty between Japan and the major wartime Pacific allies. Termed a "treaty of reconciliation," it is unique in history because no punitive terms are imposed on the defeated nation.

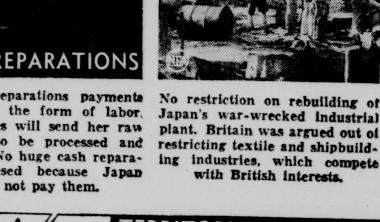

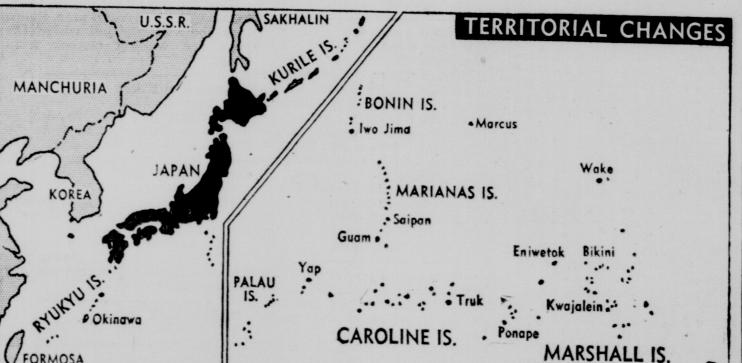

No restrictions on arms. Presumably Japan may build up armed forces to serve in Japanese-American defensive alliance. U. S., in separate pact, will get right to station military forces in Japan.

Doctor Indicted in Spinster's Death

Dr. Donald F. Gibson, 49, (left), Danbury, Conn., stands with fellow physician Dr. Frank T. Genovese outside courtroom at Bridgeport, Conn., (July 13) after a Fairfield county grand jury had indicted the former for manslaughter in the death of Miss Elizabeth Ayres, wealthy 74-year-old Danbury spinster who made him her heir. The same jury made no charge against Dr. Genevese, who also had been implicated in the affair. Miss Ayres died a year ago after what the jury charged had been" the reckless and grossly negligent administration of drugs." (AP WIREPHOTO)

Fires in Industrial Area

Smoke plumes upward over the flooded industrial section of Kansas City, Mo., (July 15) as numerous fires burn, some out of control, as flood waters kept firemen from reaching the flames. Oil storage tanks and a chemical plant were endangered. A large area was destroyed previously by fires that have been burning for two days. Floating oil onto Kansas river added to the fire threat. In background is the Kansas City, Mo., skyline. (AP WIREPHOTO)

Was Held at Golf Course on Sunday

Fifteen couples took part in the Scotch tournament held Sunday afternoon at the Elm Hills golf course. Prizes for the events went to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Maloney, Ray Warbritton and Mrs. E. J. Feig, Dr. Herbert Hunter and Mrs. Frank Gerlicz and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Peabody.

To Start Handicap
Rex Preston, club manager, states that a permanent ladder type of tournament will start on the links immediately and will progress through the remainder

All players wishing to participate in this tourney must turn in score cards not later than Sunday, July 22 in order that their handicaps can be computed. These scores will also make it possible for Mr. Preston to select players' positions for the coming local and inter-city matches.

Women are urged to carry on with the same plan as an attempt is being made by the club to buildup their interest in the activities.

Players on the Course

Other players participating in Sunday's play were Mr. and Mrs Fred Wertz, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Fingland, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hampson, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Voigt, Ralph Walker and Peggy Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Labahn, Bill Wilson and Lucy Patten, Rex Preston and Mrs. Norman Scotten, Charles Van Oppen of Decatur, Ill., a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Preston. Mr. Van Oppen assisted in the tournament supervision.
